

Key Learning Outcomes of “WZ on the road” session

- To understand what peer pressure is
 - To understand how peer pressure can be a negative thing
 - To know what can be done to avoid peer pressure
-
- To understand the need to take responsibility for own safety
 - To understand what “taking a risk” means
 - To realise that taking a risk can be a dangerous thing to do
 - To understand that by being in control you can reduce risk
 - To be able to recognise the body’s early warning signs
 - To recognise the difference between being scared and being unsafe
 - To know who we can tell if we have been made to feel unsafe
-
- To know what the age of criminal responsibility is
 - To understand the consequences of offending for themselves, their families and for other people they may not even know
 - To realise who pays for crime
 - To understand how anti-social behaviour affects other people